

Brand USA Officially Launches Its Representation in Brazil

washington, DC - March 25, 2014

Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, officially opened its Brazil office. The office launch event held today in São Paulo was attended by U.S. Ambassador Liliana Ayalde Brand USA's Senior Vice President for Global Partnerships Alfredo Gonzalez, and Brand USA's in-market representatives. Press and travel industry leaders also attended and enjoyed traditional American food and music, which demonstrated the incredible experiences Brazilians can experience in the United States.

Brand USA is the public-private partnership responsible for promoting international travel to the United States, designed to fuel the United States' economy and spur job growth. Its formation marked the launch of the United States' first nationally-coordinated international tourism marketing effort. During the event, Ambassador Liliana Ayalde emphasized the role of tourism in strengthening bilateral relations between the two countries. "Tourism is not only an important part of our commercial relationship, but also an integral part of our growing cultural and educational relationship," said Ambassador Ayalde.

Alfredo Gonzalez showed great confidence in the work of Brand USA in Brazil since the country had the largest increase in the number of visitors in the United States among the eight key countries in which Brand USA is fully deployed through all three consumer advertising, consumer marketing, and travel trade channels. "Brazilians contribute significantly to the increase in numbers of U.S. tourism. Beyond just tourism, the whole U.S. economy benefits from this interest. So we are very happy to start our work here and hope that this relationship will grow even more," says Gonzalez.

The figures for Brazil, collected in a recent Oxford Economics study on the return on investment in marketing conducted by Brand USA, gave even more strength to the work of Brand USA in the country. From October 2012 through September 2013, Brand USA's marketing campaigns helped to increase the U.S. market share of outbound Brazilian travelers by 3.1 percent against competing destinations. Brazil showed the largest increase out of the organization's eight key markets and played an important role in an overall incremental increase of 1.1 million international visitors to the United States.

To represent Brand USA in Brazil and establish partnerships with the tourism market, the organization chose Ogilvy PR and Mariana Abrantes as its official in-market representatives.

About Brand USA

Brand USA is the nation's official destination marketing organization, dedicated to attracting legitimate international inbound travel to strengthen the U.S. economy, increase exports, create quality jobs, and promote community prosperity. By running data-driven campaigns and unifying messaging across industry and government, Brand USA positions the United States as a top global destination while providing current visa and entry information.

Since 2012 Brand USA, in collaboration with travel industry partners, has been responsible for attracting an additional 10.3 million visitors who spent nearly $35 billion in the United States, generating $76 billion in economic output, and sustaining nearly 40,000 jobs per year. Without any cost to taxpayers, these efforts have generated $10 billion in tax receipts and returned $20 to the U.S. economy for every dollar spent.
