

Brand USA Launches New Social Media Campaign

washington, DC - February 27, 2014

Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, kicks off the Great American Road Trip campaign, this week. The social media campaign will feature 10 road trips covering 39 states and countless destinations through its Discover America channels.

Brand USA's Great American Road Trip campaign is designed to inspire travelers to discover America from the open road and highlight both the well-known and less-discovered road trips by topic and geography. Social media influencers, from nine of Brand USA's international markets, will travel on each road trip to discover first-hand the quintessential American experiences—sharing stories and photos with their social media followers along the way.

The content will be posted on Brand USA's consumer facing channels and website, www.DiscoverAmerica.com. Each feature takes readers on a journey to 'discover this land like never before' and will include important attractions, points of interest, restaurants and other 'must see' locations along the route.

The first road trip kicks off on February 27 in California with the Pacific Coast highway. The campaign will run through July and feature a new road trip every few weeks. The featured road trips and markets include: ?

- February: Cruise the Pacific Coast Highway (Japan) ?
- March: Texas BBQ Trail (South Korea) ?
